Do you think when a man he is grown I shall love an atom the less?
No; off in a world of his own
My own he will still be to bless;
The world is too narrow to part
My boy from his true mother's heart.

ROSE AND RUE.

When I was a maiden fair and fond, And smiled and sang all day, A strange young squire With looks of fire, He lured my heart away.

The gardener's son as he stood by Four gifts thus gave to me: The violet blue. The pink, the rue, And the red, red rosy tree.

"For your baimy lips the sweet glove pink For your eyes the violet blue. The rose to speak Your radiant cheek, And for memory the rue."

And first my love was fond and rai, And then he turned untrue. My rose and pink And violets shrink, But my tears keep fresh the rue. —The Athenaeum.

It's wonderful how much health has to do with married happiness. Sickness affects the temper. You can't be happy nor make others happy if you're miling. When you find yourself irritable easily worried, beginning to "rundown" it's because your blood is getting poor. You need richer blood and more of it. You'r blood-making organs need to be vitalized by Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It imparts new power to produce an abundance of the healthy red corpuscles, and gives you a fresh supply of pure, rich blood. It's a blood creator; it is for everyone whose blood is impure or in a poor, "run-down" condition. It prevents the germs of disease from gelting a hold on your system. Even after disease is settled on you, it is driven out by the blood-creating properties of the "Discovery." It is a perfect cure for general and nervous debility, catarrh, inslaria, eczems, erysipelas, scrofula and every form of blood-disease. It isn't called a consumption—which has its roots in the blood—is driven out by the "folden Medical Discovery" is taken in time. The "Discovery" is taken in time. The "Discovery" is the prescription of one of the most eminent physicians and medical writers in this country.

ing place, and its equal probably does not exist the world over. The interior is divided into numberless rooms, and each bather is assigned to one of these apartments. The room contains a fresh water douche, a copper tub filled with fresh water and the most interesting of all, a small car on which there is a tub filed with mud. The bather does not get a tub of fresh mud every time he visits the place, but on the contrary he uses the same mud until his course of treatment has been used an attendant removes it on the car and places it wirere it will dry in the sun. Then it is returned to the room to be used again the following day. The mud contains many minerals of curative powers, and is recommended as beneficial for a large warrety of bodily aliments.

How do you do, young man.

Henry started and looked quickly to see riding nearly abreast of him a short slight man whose smile, despite a rather frowsy, thin red beard and a freekled face, was quite pleasing.

"How far are you going this way?"
the stranger continued in a soft voice which at once won Henry's confidence.
